As per previous Jamad.

With reference to the above registers it is not possible to say when the payment of the Jodi was directed.

The general accounts available in the records were also looked into. These are Chiefs Jamadandi Sashwara. The accounts from 1799 to 1825-26 do not show that any Jodi was levied in respect of this village & do not show any revenue under Jodi. The accounts from 1825-26 to 1842-43 ~~refers~~ speaks to the levy of a Jodi of 5 Varahas. But the authority under which this Jodi is levied is not specified. In the accounts of the subsequent years however the authority referred to is the Kumpa or Jakeed of 1801 each finds no entry in the registers of such Kumpa & Jakeeds — is therefore open to doubt and this doubt is strengthened by the fact that it is very unusual to levy a jodi on account of excise revenue. What is probable is that the jodi levied is purely on account of land revenue payable to Govt and it has no relation to the excise revenue of the village. Please see paras P.S. 9 & 10 of the notes regarding

The Hukeem of the Kottapore amildaar is however in favor of the inamdars to whose enjoyment of the item of revenue it testifies but whatever right the inamdars may have derived from unauthorized enjoyment, in the absence of the express alienation by Sanad, that has fallen into desuetude by their not having exercised it for the last 30 years, as admitted by them.
	6. The Sultan Chittas produced do not seem to be quite reliable. They make mention of 30 long leases for 60 years - very unusual in such transactions.

8.7. The evidence based on Sanads in support of express mention of alienation of the Kheri of revenue is as stated in para 2 supra is not acceptable and as for enjoyment there has been none during the last 30 years. In these circumstances it would appear that the mamdar's claim to the 600 kheri revenue of the villages has not been established

I don't think we can now call in question the genuineness of the Sanad in the manner of the latter part of the foregoing notes. It has been accepted by the Inam Deptt for the Inam Dept of the village, & genuine as it is for that it may be equally relied upon for the correctness of its contents.

2- But before reaching a definite decision I would request the Inam Deptt to cause the copy of the Sanad Kept Register in this file to be carefully compared with the original & returned with errors if any duly corrected - If any words are illegible in the original the manager of the Inam Deptt's office may be duly deputed by the Inam Deptt to show me the original & take it back - reservations of Toddy Revenue. And the Inam Register based thereon shows that (among other items) Toddy was conceded to the Inamdar, and further that a Title deed to this effect was issued on 1st. April 1870.

3. The Register of Inam inquiry shows that this Title-Deed was recalled under order dated 20th August 1870 and corrected. But this correction was in respect of the share of one of the holders and not in respect of Toddy rights.

4. The Register of Inam inquiry however contain a remark "The Sayer and Abkary are reserved; the Inamdar can derive toddy from his date trees by renting them to the Government Contractor". A reference to the original shows that this is in the special Assistant Mr. B. Gopalayya's handwriting and has been inserted as an after thought. It is not dated and does not fit in with the sequence of entries in the Register. In itself, it is inconsistent or unmeaning inasmuchas renting of Date trees to the Government Contractor is what an Inamdar has to do in any case whether or not Toddy is conceded to him. And reservation by the special Assistant is inconsistent with the Inam Commissioner's final order dated 28th. March 1870, and with the Title deed issued in accordance with that order. Mr. Gopalayya's remark has therefore to be rejected. Possibly, Mr. Gopalayya wrote on this sheet in this case what he intended to write on another sheet in another case. But this is only a way of explaining what is otherwise manifestly a mistake.

OFFICE OF THE EXCISE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE.

DATED BANGALORE, 19th July 1907.

From

H.H.Sparkes Esquire,

Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

To

C.S.Balasundram Iyer Esquire, B.A.

Secretary to the Govt. of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl & Rev Departs.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit the records of enquiry relating to the Inamdar's claim to the Excise revenue from toddy of Jodi Ahobala Agrahar village with its dakli Chinnavaranahalli in the Tumkur Taluk together with a copy of the Inam Settlement Register of the village

2. The Sannad dated 1826 granted by His late Highness Sri Krishnaraja Wadayar Bahadur orders the release of the Jodi village of Ahobala Agrahar with its Dakli Chinnavaranahalli from the attachment made in consequence of the complaint preferred by the Shanbogue of the village and directs the continuance of the village to the Inamdars on payment of a Jodi of 5 Pagodas as heretofore. In the preamble of this Sannad it is mentioned that the Inamdars allege that they were enjoying the villages on Sarvamanyam tenure but it was subsequently subjected to a jodi of 5 Pagodas by Dewan Purnaiya on account of "Shendi khana" . The subsequent ratification of the Inam on a Jodi of 5 Pagodas acquiesces in the view that the 5 Pagodas levied is on account of "Shendi khana".

3. In column 20 of the Inam settlement Register of enquiry the special Assistant Mr.Gopaliah has recorded "The Sayer and Abkari are reserved, the Inamdars can derive toddy from their date trees by renting to the the Government contractor". Toddy is one of the items of revenue mentioned in the statement of annual collection shown in the Register. The investigating officer has recorded that toddy is one of the items granted to the Inamdar in the Quit rent Register of the village, and that the village is entered in the list of villages entitled to the toddy revenue in the Tumkur District furnished by the Inam Department. In these circumstances the remarks of the special Assistant which are confirmed by the Inam Superintendent can only mean that the Inamdars can derive the Excise revenue from toddy of the village only through the Government contractor.

4. Kannada Hukum No.135 of 1857-58 from the Amildar of Kortigere to the Shekdar, Shanbogue and Patel of the Hobli, directing that no interference should be allowed in the Inamdars' right to bring toddy from Inam BalaBasavanahalli grove and sell the same in Chinnavaranahalli toddy shop and the four Kutha chits on the file of records show that the Inamdars were in the enjoyment of rental of a toddy shop in Chinnavaranahalli from 1855 to 1888.

5. In these circumstances, I beg to submit that I concur in the opinion recorded by the Deputy Commissioner that the Inamdar is entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy of the village. There is at present no toddy shop in the village, but there are a few date trees. The case, therefore, falls under Rules 2,5 and 13 of Government Proceedings No. 2074-83/R.F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901. When submitting the refund bill on receipt of Government orders the amount payable to the Inamdar will be verified and checked.

The following letter No.601 dated the 19th July 1907 from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry relating to the claim to the toddy revenue of the Jodi Ahobala Agrahar and its dakhli Chinnavanahalli, Tumkur Taluk.

(To be printed in extenso)

Order thereon No. H 4004-6 / S.R 38-07-2

Dated Bangalore 12 February ~~Deer~~ 1907.

The claim to toddy excise revenue is chiefly based on the sannad of 1826, confirming the Village to the Inamdars on payment of a Jodi of 5 pagodas. In the preamble of this sannad it is stated that a jodi was imposed on this village, Sarvamanyam as it was, because of the Inamdars enjoyment of the shendi revenue of the village.

The genuineness of the sannad was accepted at the Inam settlement, and the village was confirmed by the Inam Commissioner on 28th March 1870 without mention of any reservations to toddy revenue to Government. The Inam register based thereon shows that 'toddy' was conceded to the Inamdar and that a title deed to this effect was issued on 1st April 1870.

2. With reference to the remark made by the Special Assistant Mr. Gopaliah in the Inam enquiry register reserving the sayer and abkari alluded to by the Excise Commissioner in para 3 of his letter, Government observe that the remark is undated, that it does not fit in with the sequence of entries in the register and has to be rejected, inasmuch as the reservation by the Special Assistant is inconsistent with the Inam Commissioner's final order dated the 28th March 1870 and with the title deed issued in accordance with that order.

The following letter No. 601, dated the 19th July 1907, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry relating to the claim to the toddy revenue of the Jodi Ahobala Agrahar and its dakhli Chinnavarnahalli, Tumkur Taluk.

I have the honor to submit the records of enquiry relating to the Inamdar's claim to the Excise revenue from toddy of Jodi Ahobala Agrahar village with its dakhli Chinnavarnahalli in the Tumkur Taluk, together with a copy of the Inam Settlement Register of the village.

In the preamble of this sannad it is mentioned that the Inamdars allege that they were enjoying the villages on Sarvamanyam tenure but it was subsequently subjected to a Jodi of five pagodas by Dewan Purnaiya on account of " Shendi Khana. " The subsequent ratification of the Inam on a Jodi of five pagodas acquiesces in the view that the five pagodas levied is on account of " Shendi Khana. "

3. In column 20 of the Inam Settlement Register of enquiry, the Special Assistant Mr. Gopaliah has recorded " The sayer and abkari are reserved, the Inamdars can derive toddy from their date trees by renting to the Government contractor." The toddy is one of the items of revenue mentioned in the statement of annual collection shown in the Register. The investigating officer has recorded that toddy is one of the items granted to the Inamdar in the Quit-rent register of the village that the village is entered in the list of villages entitled to the toddy revenue in the Tumkur District furnished by the Inam Department. 5. In these circumstances, I beg to submit that I concur in the opinion recorded by the Deputy Commissioner that the Inamdar is entitled to the Excise revenue from toddy of the village. There is at present no toddy shop in the village, but there are a few date trees. The case, therefore, falls under Rules 2, 5 and 13 of Government Proceedings No. 2074-83—R. No. FL. 4004-6—S. R. 38-07-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 12TH FEBRUARY 1908.

ORDER THEREON.—The claim to toddy Excise revenue is chiefly based on the sannad of 1826, confirming the village to the Inamdars on payment of a Jodi of five pagodas. In the preamble of this sannad it is stated that a Jodi was imposed on this village, Sarvamanyam as it was, because of the Inamdar's enjoyment of the shendi revenue of the village.

The genuineness of the sannad was accepted at the Inam Settlement, and the village was confirmed by the Inam Commissioner on the 28th March 1870, without mention of any reservations to toddy revenue to Government. The Inam Register based thereon shows that toddy was conceded to the Inamdar and that a title-deed to this effect was issued on 1st April 1870.

2. With reference to the remark made by the Special Assistant Mr. Gopaliah in the Inam enquiry register reserving the sayer and abkari alluded to by the Excise Commissioner in para 3 of his letter, Government observe that the remark is undated, that it does not fit in with the sequence of entries in the register and has to be rejected, inasmuch as the reservation by the Special Assistant is inconsistent with the Inam Commissioner's final order dated the 28th March 1870, and with the title-deed issued in accordance with that order.

Under these circumstances, concurring with the investigating officer, the Deputy Commissioner and the Excise Commissioner, Government are of opinion that the Inamdar should be held entitled to toddy Excise revenue.

There is no shop in the village which has only date trees. The Inamdar does not appear to have derived any income from toddy until recently and the case therefore falls under Rule 13 of Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated the 2nd August 1901.
